Virtual NSO: Friday, June 24 OR Friday, July 1

Move-In + QuestWeek: Tuesday, August 16 - Sunday, August 22

January NSO: Friday, January 6, 2023

Qualifications:

Quest Team members must:

- Consistently uphold University policies and regulations throughout their time as a student
- Be in good standing with the University and not be on official probation (academic or chapel)
- Be able to sincerely promote and present the University in a positive manner
- Maintain a minimum, cumulative, GPA of 2.5
- Be a self-starter (responsible, dependable, and organized, etc.)
- Have strong interpersonal skills and a genuine desire to serve others
- Be motivated by the satisfaction of helping new students and their parents
- Work cooperatively with others
- Be available and willing to work long hours and to do detailed tasks when necessary
- Be committed to living on campus for the summer as part of a Living-Learning Community
 - Housing will be coordinated and funded for those selected; you will not need to find your own on-campus housing accommodation

Notes:

- Unfortunately, if you are planning to serve as a RA in any of our on-campus residence halls next year, you are unable to also serve as a Quest Team member due to an overlap in time commitment.
- Due to the structure of our Spring training course, you must be enrolled in less than 18 hours for the Spring 2022 semester. If this requirement affects your graduation or degree track, please denote this on your application and discuss it with us in your interview.
