

Christian Apologetics Featured Lecture

Session 4: Thursday, June 6, 1:45–3:15 p.m.

“Engaging the Changing Landscape: The Urgent Need for Intellectual Credibility in Christian Apologetics”

Location: Stone Chapel

Charlie Styles

Styles is CEO of the Oxford Centre for Christian Apologetics (OCCA). With more than 15 years of experience in the field of theology and pastoral studies, Styles is passionate about helping people discover and defend the truth and relevance of Christianity. Through the OCCA, he leads a global team of speakers, trainers, and researchers who engage with various audiences and contexts on the questions and challenges of faith and culture. Before joining OCCA in 2022, he served as the rector of the Wycliffe Fellowship at the Church of England for nine years. He holds an undergraduate degree from Durham University and a postgraduate diploma in theology and pastoral studies from Oak Hill Theological College.